Cohen's Lottery and Exchange-Office.*Pro signo Fortuna.

BALTIMORE—THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1827.

An Odd Number—First Time.

The drawing of the Grand State Lottery of Maryland, No. 9, took place yesterday afternoon according to advertisement, and agreeably to the usual and invariable punctuality in the Schemes announced by our office. For the first time since the adoption of the present popular mode of drawing on the Odd and Even System, the Capital Prize came out to an Odd Number, (28847).—The 10,000 dollars was drawn by No. 29947, and the 5,000 dollars by No. 26153. As soon as we obtain permission we will announce where and to whom these brilliant prizes have fallen.—The Thousands, Five Hundreds, &c. have had, as usual, an extensive distribution. On the opposite page will be found our Official List of the entire drawing—the CASH for all prizes are ready for the adventurers; and we have, as usual, to request them to be handed or sent in for payment or renewal, as early as suits the convenience of the holders.

Our next Register will contain the official list of the 3d class of the Virginia State Lottery, the drawing of which will take place next Wednesday in the City of Richmond.—We shall also then announce the Scheme No. 10, of the Grand State Lottery of Maryland, and in which renewals of prizes can be made.

THE EVEN NUMBERS. Adventurers will recollect that although the Capital prize in the Grand State Lottery of Maryland (drawn yesterday) came out to an Odd Number, thereby entitling all the odd numbers to Four dolls—it does not follow that all the Even numbers, in consequence, are Blanks—such is not the case—for on examination of the list of drawing it will be perceived that many of the even numbers drew prizes, and many of them of considerable importance; for example 17182 drew 1000 dolls.—3266, 4446, 19052 prizes of 500 dollars each, &c.

On Wednesday next, the 24th.

The drawing of the VIRGINIA STATE LOTTERY, 3d class, for the benefit of the Monongalia Academy, will take place, agreeably to announcement, in the City of Richmond on Wednesday next, the 24th instant.—The official list of the prizes will be published in our next Register.

Strangers visiting Baltimore are respectfully informed, that we have but one Office in the city of Baltimore, and that one, at No. 114, Market-street. We mention this in order to prevent mistakes (which we learn are of frequent occurrence) in consequence of the similarity of name (on paper) of another office.—In calling, sending or directing, our friends will please be particular in noticing the above.

Cohen's Office—Charleston.

Our friends and adventurers residing in the Southern section of the Union, are reminded of the Branch of our Establishment in the city of CHARLESTON, at No. 16, Broad-street, opposite the Bank of the State. It may suit their convenience to procure their supplies of Tickets in the various Lotteries from that Office. In all matters appertaining to Lotteries or Exchange, they may depend on the same prompt and punctual attention at that Office, (and also at our respective Branches in Norfolk, Richmond, Philadelphia and New-York) as if addressed to the Office in Baltimore.

Letters for either Office to be directed to
J. I. COHEN, Jr. & BROTHERS.

Claims for Captured Slaves.

From an authentic source at Washington, we learn that at the Convention recently arranged at London, by our Minister Mr. Gallatin, fixes the total amount of compensation to be paid by the British Government for slaves, tobacco, &c. carried off by the British Officers subsequent to the treaty at Ghent, at one million two hundred thousand dollars. The amount claimed by our citizens exceeds 1,500,000 dollars, viz: by those of Maryland, 280,000—Virginia, 520,000—Louisiana, 150,000—Georgia, 480,000—Alexandria, 113,000—Maine, 16,000—Mississippi, 6,000—Delaware, 7,000.

Cadets. The whole number of Cadets in Capt. Partridge's Academy is 295; of whom 86 are from New-England, 73 from the Southern, 83 from the Middle, and 44 from the Western States, 5 from the West-Indies, 2 from Canada, 1 from England, and 1 from Greece. So universal a patronage is bestowed upon no other Seminary in this country.

THE GRAVE OF JEFFERSON.

A writer in Poulson's American Daily Advertiser, thus describes the burial place of Mr Jefferson.

"I ascended the winding road, which leads from Charlottesville to Monticello. The path leads a circuitous ascent of about two miles up the miniature mountain, to the farm and the grave of Jefferson. On entering the gate which opens into the enclosure, numerous paths diverge in various directions, winding through beautiful groves to the summit of the hill. From the peak on which the house stands, a grand and nearly unlimited view opens to the thickly wooded hills and fertile vallies, which stretch out on either side. The University, with its dome, porticos and colonnade, looks like a fair city in the plain; Charlottesville seems to be directly beneath. No spot can be imagined as combining greater advantages of grandeur, healthfulness and seclusion. The house is noble in its appearance; two large columns support a portico, which extends from the wings, and into it the front door opens. The apartments are neatly furnished and embellished with statues, busts, portraits and natural curiosities. The grounds and out houses have been neglected.—Mr. Jefferson's attention being absorbed from such personal concerns by the cares attendant on the superintendence of the University, which when in health, he visited daily since its erection commenced.

At a short distance behind the mansion, in a quiet shaded spot, the visitor sees a square of enclosure, surrounded by a low ornamented stone wall, which he enters by a neat wooden gate.—This is the family burial ground, containing ten or fifteen graves, none of them marked by epitaphs and only a few distinguished by any memorial. On one side of this simple cemetery, is the resting place of the patriot and philosopher. When I saw it, the vault was just arched, and in readiness for the plain stone which is to cover it. May it ever continue like Washington's, without any adventitious attractions or conspicuousness; for when we or our posterity, need any other memento of our debt of honour to those names, than their simple inscription on paper, wood or stone, gorgeous tombs would be a mockery to their memories. When gratitude shall cease to consecrate their remembrance in the hearts of our citizens, no cenotaph will inspire the reverence we owe to them."

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

WAR IN EUROPE. By the arrival of the packet ship Florida, at New-York on Friday last, in 26 days from Liverpool, and the Hudson from London, English dates to the 16th December are received—they contain the highly important intelligence of the invasion of Portugal by Spain, and that the former in conformity of the existing treaty of alliance, had called upon England for aid, which was promptly answered: The King of England's message to Parliament, announcing the object, and asking supplies, was received and granted under acclamations.—Troops were immediately to be embarked—they are chosen chiefly from the veteran corps.

A letter from London, of the 14th ult. received at New York, says, "It is generally believed that France is at the bottom of the aggressions with Portugal, notwithstanding her protestations to the contrary. Judging from appearances, I should say we are likely to have a general stir on the Continent, although many think the steps taken by Ministers will be the only sure way to prevent it. All public securities have fallen very much during the week; South American have gone down full ten per cent."

The Bank of England has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. for the last six months.

The King of England has had another severe attack of the gout, and was in consequence living very abstemiously. The Duke of York continues in a state of great bodily suffering, and though his physicians entertain no apprehension of immediate danger, there is little hope of his ever being restored to health.

In a Liverpool paper is the following:

Mr. Matthews—This unrivalled delineator of character takes his benefit this evening, at Liverpool, and the house will be "pretty considerably" crammed in every corner, I calculate.—On Monday evening last, this gentleman had an opportunity of displaying that ready wit for which he is so famous. In the entertainment of the "Memorandum Book," there is a song called the "Liverpool Night Coach," in which a travelling astrologer, an outside passenger, invites one of his fellow travellers to look through his telescope, and describes to him the names of the planets, &c. "There's Jupiter and his set-of lights;" "There's Venus;" "There's Mars."—At this point, a fellow in the gallery, who had at different times during the evening, created much noisy disturbance greatly to the annoyance of both audience and performer, roared out with a stentorian voice, "Look at me!" upon which Matthews, whose spleen had been for some time gathering within him, pointed his telescope at the fellow, saying with infinite promptitude—And there's the great Bear;" which brought down a tremendous burst of laughter, and several rounds of applause.

COHEN'S OFFICE, Thursday Morning,
11 o'clock.

We have this moment paid the Capital Prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS. The fortunate ticket was presented by Mr. Samuel Young of this City. The owner resides in Philadelphia. Mr. Young purchased for him a few days ago, two tickets, one of which (28847) has thus realized to his friend the above brilliant Capital.

All Tickets ending with either 1, 3, 5, 7, or 9, are entitled to Four Dollars each—those ending with 2, 4, 6, 8, or 0, and not to be found amongst the above, are Blanks.

28.847, an Odd Number,

Having drawn the Capital Prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, agreeably to the scheme every Odd Number in the Lottery is entitled to a prize of FOUR DOLLARS, and in addition to whatever sum any of them may have drawn besides.

All Tickets with Numbers ending with either 1, 3, 5, 7 or 9, are those entitled to the Four Dollar prizes.

Many Tickets, consequently, have obtained TWO PRIZES EACH!—for example, No. 7233 (see list above) having drawn Twenty Dollars, and being an Odd Number, is entitled to a prize of four dollars also; therefore, No. 7233 will receive Twenty-four Dollars, &c. Again, No. 20,299 (see list above) having drawn a prize of One Hundred Dollars, and being an Odd Number, is entitled also to one of the four dollar prizes; consequently, No. 20,299 will receive One Hundred and Four Dollars, and so on.

Drawing Next Week.

THIRD CLASS OF THE GRAND STATE LOTTERY OF VIRGINIA,

For the Benefit of the Monongalia Academy—the mode of drawing secured by Letters Patent under Seal of the United States—the whole IN ONE DAY—the drawing will take place in RICHMOND, on

Wednesday, 24th January

HIGHEST PRIZE,
10.000 Dols.

SCHEME.

1	10,000	10,000
1	5,000	5,000
4	1,000	4,000
20	100	2,000

200	5	1,000
6000	4	24,000
6,446 Prizes am'ting to 49,000

MODE OF DRAWING.—The numbers will be put into one wheel as usual—and in the other will be put, the prizes above the denomination of Ten Dollars, and the drawing to progress in the usual manner. The 6000 prizes of Four Dollars will be awarded to the tickets, the numbers of which end with the terminal figure of either of the three first drawn of different terminations. The Five Dollar prizes will be awarded to the tickets having the two last figures corresponding with the two last figures of the number of the next drawn of a different termination—and the Ten Dollar prizes will be awarded to the tickets having the two last figures corresponding with the two last figures of such number of the following drawn of a different termination.

This mode will permit the whole Lottery to be completed IN ONE DRAWING—and a ticket drawing a superior prize will not be restricted from drawing an inferior one also.

Tickets.....$4 | Quarters.....$1.00
Halves.....2 | Eighths.....50 cts.

Tickets and Shares to be had in a great variety of Numbers at

COHEN'S

LOTTERY AND EXCHANGE OFFICES.

At COHEN'S OFFICE, both the great Capital Prizes of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS! Were obtained in the late Grand State Lotteries, and where the HIGHEST CAPITAL sold in the last Grand State Lottery was obtained, and where more Capital Prizes have been obtained than at any other office in America.

ORDERS from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or Prize Tickets in any of the Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application. Be particular in directing to

J. I. Cohen, Jr. & Brothers.

COHEN'S "Gazette & Lottery Register," will be published immediately after the drawing of each Lottery, and will contain the Official List of the Prizes—it will be forwarded gratis, to all who purchase their tickets at COHEN'S OFFICE, and who signify their wish to receive it.
